

THE BIG STONE GAP POST.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 2, 1912

Published Every Wednesday by the WISE PRINTING COMPANY,
Incorporated

GILBERT N. KNIGHT, - Editor.

One Year, - - - $1.00
Six Months, - - - .50 Three Months, - - - .25Entered according to postal regulations at the post-office at Big Stone Gap as second-class matter.

SUBSCRIBERS are earnestly requested to observe the date printed on their address slips, which will keep them at all times posted as to the date of the expiration of their subscription. Prompt and timely attention to this request will save all parties a great deal of annoyance.

Five weeks from yesterday until the election, and after then the "told-you-sos" will be much in evidence.

A Brooklyn dentist has become an aviator, and will now have a chance to work on his own nerve.

A San Francisco woman has a special car for her dogs. This no doubt suits the regular passengers.

The political bee in the Ninth District will soon be humming in good fashion, and for the next five weeks all kinds of political tricks will be turned.

Three leading candidates for president and three candidates for congress should be enough to enable everybody to vote on the first Tuesday in November.

Big Stone Gap enjoys the distinction of being one of the most beautiful, healthful, orderly and public spirited towns in Southwest Virginia. A better people never inhabited any town than are found here.

The macadamizing of the road from the Virginia and Southwestern railroad crossing beyond the depot is almost completed to the public school building, where it connects with the macadam on Wood Avenue. This is an elegant piece of road and speaks well for the efficiency of the road builders.

Some may think that property is high in Big Stone Gap, but when you consider the desirability of the place as a home for your family, and the many advantages to be had here you will find that property is cheaper here than anywhere else in all this hustling mountain section.

The Post especially desires to impress upon the town council the importance of macadamiz-ing the road from the Virginia and Southwestern tracks to the corporation line at Kennedy's store, which was graded early in the summer. This road serves a large number of people living in that part of the town, and if the rock is not put on this fall it will be almost impassable this winter. The proposition to put slag on the road and wait until next summer to macadamize it should not be thought of except as a last resort. We are sure the town can borrow enough money to complete this road, and then it will be through with, where as, if it is slugged this fall and macadamized next summer the cost of the slugging will be thrown away, as there is no reason to presume that the macadam can be done any cheaper next summer than it can be done this fall. So far as we have been able to learn the citizens of the town are a unit in favor of completing this road and they are looking to the council to have it done.

Mr. and Mrs. Cochran Entertains.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. C.
O. Cochran entertained a few friends in honor of Miss Sarah Cochran's birthday.
Progressive Hearts was the diversion of the evening.

Mrs. Karl Stoehr won the first prize of the ladies and was presented with a beautiful cut glass napper. Mr. McPherson winning the highest score of the gentlemen was given a box of candy. Mr. C.
F. Blanton won in the cut for consolation, a handsome ledger note book.

After the games delicious refreshments were served, consisting of chicken salad, potato chips, celery, olives, beaten biscuits, ice cream, cake and coffee.

Among those present were: Misses Eugenia Baumgardner, Margaret Bullitt, Madge Dingess and Lottie McNeil, of Rialto; Mrs. R. L. Parks, Mr. and Mrs.
C. F. Blanton, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Winston, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Stoehr, Messrs. Glen Southward, G. G. McPherson, R. R. Catper and Mr. Waller.

Rev. J. W. Rader, presiding elder of the Big Stone Gap district of the M. E. Church, South, preached his farewell sermon in the church here on last Sunday morning. Under the rules of the conference, which allows presiding elders and preachers to remain on one charge not longer than four years, he will be sent to another district at this conference.
Mr. Rader has been exceedingly successful in his work during the four years just closed, which has been one of the most prosperous periods in the history of the district. Mr. Rader is very popular here and throughout the district and the prayers and good wishes of the people will go with him and his good wife to their new field of labor.

A man living on the mountain north of here reported to the police last week that he had seen a man, answering the description of Joe Cornett, of Imboden, wanted for the murder of a young man named Wade near here several weeks ago.
The stranger is said to have inquired for a road leading to Appalachia, saying he had been lost for about a week and had been living on raw corn and like stuff that he could forage. A search was made and though a trail was found the man was not located.

Sheriff J. M. Wright, constable James Anderson and Henry Bently, of Letcher county, Ky., were seriously shot Saturday night, on Wright's Fork, near Whitesburg, as a result of the Sheriff attempting to arrest Bently, who resisted and was struck by the officer, when some of Bently's friends interfered causing the wholesale shooting particulars of which are men-gred.

Attorney W. J. Horsley, who has been located at Los Tanos, N. M., for the past four years, returned to the Gap last week, and, together with his family, who returned to this place several weeks ago, have gone to housekeeping in their property near the Southern Methodist Church.

The Gate City Band made excellent music at the Fair. It was decidedly better than any band at any previous Fair—and they were not one bit stinky with their music.—Lebanon News.

Robert McLemore had a breakdown with his big automobile the other day. C. C.
Long, of Big Stone Gap, came up Tuesday and made out an order for the broken parts.— Wise Virginian.

Rev. R. K. Sutherland, pastor of the Southern Methodist Church at this place, left Tuesday for Abingdon to attend the annual conference of his church.
Mr. Sutherland has been very successful in his work the past year and is very popular with the people of the Gap, and they trust that he will be returned here for another year.

The Progressive thinks heavy raining ought to be put along the high embankments of the new pike in the west end of town. There is danger that one of these fine days or nights a team or automobile will take a tumble into the river unless this is done.—Appalachia Progressive.

Do You Love Good Music?

If so, you should not miss buying some of the titles just received at the Music Department of the Amuzu Cafe, fresh from the press of New York publishers.

Here are some that are particularly attractive: "My Sweetheart Went Down with the Ship;" "The Wreck of the Titanic;" "When My Golden Hair Turned to Silver Gray;"
"Just as the Ship Went Down;"
"No Flower can Compare With You, Girl;" "The Snow Man."

A Light Center is what we might call that part of our store where our big assortment of is gathered. All kinds of lanterns are represented. Each one is the latest type of its kind and has late improvements which increase the light, decrease the oil consumption and make the lantern easier to handle, stronger and more durable. We sell you the best we can buy at moderate prices.

LANTERNS

Hamblen Bros.*Shirred Backs and Button Trimmings

Two important style features shown in our new Fall Suits

A number of innovations appear this Fall in the backs of the coats, shirring at the waistline being one of the most popular ideas. This gives the coat a charmingly youthful effect.

On some suits buttons are the only trimming.
They are used on the belts, on the revers, on the cuffs, on the skirts, with effects that will surprise and delight you.

On our line of Bischof suits these style features are brought out with striking originality. That famous designer knows exactly how to use the simplest features to secure really wonderful results.

And every model is strictly "man-tailored," serviceable, tailored to fit and keep its shape.

Come in and see this line of suits. You will find them irresistible. Each has an originality of its own—is a type in itself, and no matter which you choose you may be sure you will be distinctively and faultlessly dressed.

In all the new colors and materials.
